(FUNCTIONAL SKILLS)
OCT./NOV.2005
2HOURS

Answer question 1 and one other question from the choices given. Each of your compositions should be between 350 and 450 words long.

1. Compulsory

You are the Chairperson of the Drama Club at Rafiki Secondary School. The club has staged a successful dramatization of Chinua Achebe's A Man of the People at the school. You now want to take the performance to three other schools in your district. The Head Teacher is offering the school bus, but he wants you to look for a sponsor who would pay for the fuel and the other expenses.

You then decide to contact the Kenya Anti-Corruption Authority. Write a letter to the Director and ask if the agency can sponsor these performances. Briefly explain to the Director why you think A Man of the People presents a strong argument against corruption. Remember to write through the Head Teacher.

Choose only one topic from the following:

2. Either:

(a) Write a story that illustrates the wisdom in the saying: "Whoever refuses to be taught by the mother is eventually taught by the world".

Or:

(b) Write a composition beginning: "For some of us it had been a long day, and to me in particular, the thought of what lay ahead was frightening".

3. Explain what you as a citizen of this country can do to fight insecurity.

4. Describe your favourite game or sport, giving details that would be helpful to a person who is not familiar with that game or sport

Telecommunication in Africa is growing 8..... there is room for improvement and development. A number of new networks 9..... coming up all over the continent and the African telecommunication market is growing 10..... The driver of this growth? Mobile telephony.

(Adapted from African Business, May 2004)

Question 3

a) Read the oral narrative below and then answer the questions that follow.

Nyasaye (God) wanted to put a stop to the rampages of death-death which claims the lives of everyone

Young and old

Boys and girls

Men and women

Strangers and kinsmen;

Death which kills

The innocent and the guilty

Chiefs and their subjects

The healthy and the sick
The wise and the foolish.

So one day he sent a servant to earth with a message for all his people. “send me an offering of fresh, untainted fat,” he ordered. “It should be as clean and sparkling as the moon.” Hearing this, the people slaughtered a goat, removed its pure white fat, and placed it in a clay dish overspread with fine fresh leaves.

Now they summoned Ngo’ngruok, also known as Haniafu the Chameleon, and ordered him to take their offering to Nyasaye. They also fashioned a long pole that reached up to heaven where Nyasaye dwells in his glory. This was the path Ng’ongruok would follow when carrying their offering.

But Ng’onguruok accidentally soiled the fat with his clumsy feet, and on his arrival before Nyasaye, presented a dirty and unsightly offering. Nyasaye was furious and rejected it, shouting: “tell the people of earth that because of this insult they must continue to die, just as their ancestors have done!”

Ng’ongruok descended from heaven delivered Nyasaye’s message, and returned the offering to the people. Ever since then, alas death has continued to ravage human beings. For his clumsiness, Ngo’ngruok was cursed by the people. Hence, he must always walk on all fours, and his steps must be hesitant and slow. That is why you will always see him carrying one leg raised from the ground as he tries to decide exactly where to tread.

c) Read the poem below and answer the question that follow.

Isatou died
When she was only five
And full of pride
Just before she new

5 How small a loss
 It brought to such a few
 Her mother wept
 Half grateful
 To be so early bereft.

10 And did not see the smile
 As tender as the root
 Of the emerging plant
 Which sealed her eyes
 The neighbours wailed

15 As they were paid to do
 And thought how big a spread
 Might be her wedding too
 The father looked at her
 Through marble eyes and said;

20 “Who spilt the perfume
 Mixed with morning dew?”

2. Read the passage below and fill in each blank space with an appropriate word
 Good conversationalists are not born that way. They 1their skills through patience, preparation and practice 2..... a long period of time. Some people find it 3..... To talk than others, but do not confuse talk with conversation that is, good conversation. There are all kinds of conversations, 4 from poor to excellent. Unfortunately, some of the worst conversations come from those who find it easiest to talk. 5.....the very ease with which some people talk make them 6.....to what they say and unaware that they may say 7..... much.

It lies within the power of each one of us develop quality in our conversational ability. However, one has to take some 8..... you may need to force yourself to take part in conversations, even though you have 9..... to contribute at first. If you cannot talk listen. If you cannot talk, listen. If you don't understand, ask questions. Secondly, enlarge your storehouse of knowledge every day. Never let a day go 10..... without learning something new: talk more with people; read; listen to the radio; watch television; be more observant of everything and everybody around you; travel as much as you can; start a hobby or two develop common interests with friends and classmates.

2. . (a) Read the story below and answer the questions that follow
 Once upon a time, there lived a young woman who ran away from home to secretly marry her warrior lover out in the wilderness. The warrior directed the young woman to a place in the forest where he would meet her. He said to her, "When you get to a fork along the path take the right path." Then the warrior went ahead to await her arrival in the forest.

The young woman took off, and when she got to the fork that the warrior had mentioned, she followed the left path, forgetting which path the warrior had instructed her to follow. As the girl walked on, she came upon an ogre who said to her, "hey, young woman where are going? Do you have anything to say now that I'm going to eat you?" the girl answered in song

Not here my dear
 Let us go to the water hole
 Where you can eat me
 And have a drink

Oh my dear warrior, where was it?

And so it happened that this was very bushy country. The ogre led the young woman on, and when they got to another spot, he said to her, "I am now going to eat you here." The girl broke into song, urging him not to eat her.

They went further, and the young woman kept hoping that the warrior would hear her voice. As they walked on, the ogre asked the young girl: "shall I eat you hear" The girl sang again

Not here my dear
Let us go to the water hole
Where you can eat me
And have a drink
Oh dear warrior, where was it?

But the warrior had still not heard her. When they got to a cave by a river, the ogre collected branches and leaves on which to place the young woman's flesh after he had slaughtered her. When he brought one type of leaf, the girl objected to having her flesh laid on ordinary leaves preferring the sweet-scented leaves of the Matasia plant. The ogre brought another kind of leaf but the girl also rejected it, until eventually the sweet-smelling leaves of Matassia plant were brought. When the ogre asked the girl whether those were the right type of leaves, she said: Yes, these are the ones." The ogre then laid the leaves down on the ground and lit a big fire. All this while, the girl was continuously singing the same song.

Just when the ogre was about to jump on the young woman, the warrior suddenly emerged from the bush. The young woman said to the ogre, "It is now your skinny flesh that will be laid on those leaves." The warrior killed the ogre and placed him on the bed of leaves and took the girl away. And that is the end of the story.

DAUGHTER: (Holding out her school report form) Daddy, I'm excited. My teacher said I was the best improved. I was.....

FATHER: Oh, you were? Me, I used to be number one. I was absolutely unbeatable.

DAUGHTER: Chemistry has been a particular headache (now looking at the report form which she thought her father would want to see), but this time.....

FATHER: (Stretching his arms, looking preoccupied)

Chemistry for me was particular easy.

I never scored anything less than 90%

DAUGHTER: Dad, I was going to tell you that this time.....

FATHER: (Absent minded) by the way, where is your mum?

DAUGHTER: Mum is in the garden picking vegetables. But dad, you're not listening to my story. I was telling you about Chemistry

FATHER: You mean you have a story about chemistry? Chemistry is not about stories. It is hard science.

DAUGHTER: It's about my improvement.....

FATHER: (laughing) me, it wasn't matter of improvement. I was always at the top of the class

DAUGHTER: Daddy, I give up. You're not listening

FATHER: (looking surprised) Listening? I heard you: you were talking about improvement in chemistry, weren't you?

DAUGHTER: anyway, Dad. Thank you for paying attention. Enjoy your newspaper.

FATHER: Oh yes, I'm reading an interesting story about politics

a) Provide a word which sound the same as each of the following (5mks)

- i) Male.....
- ii) Queue.....
- iii) Hire.....
- iv) Blue.....
- v) Ate.....

b) Read the poem below and then answer the questions that follow.

“The Debt” by Paul Laurence Dunbar

This is the debt I play
Just for one riotous day,
Years of regret and grief,
Sorrow without relief.

Put it I will to the end-
Until the grave, my friend,
Gives me a true release-
Gives me the clasp of peace.

Slight was the thing I bought,
Small was the debt I though,
Poor was the loan at best

God! But the interest!

(From American Negro Poetry, Edited by arna Bontemps)

- (i) List at the pairs of rhyming words (3mks)
- (ii) Describe the tone of voice that would be appropriate in the reading of this poem. (3mks)
- (iii) How does the punctuation in the second stanza influence your reading of the poem? (3mks)
- (iv) How would you say the last are of the poem? (2mks)
- c) Consider the situation below and then answer the question that follow.
You are part of an audience that is listening to a speech. You look around and notice that some people are looking at their watches, a few are yawning, and one or two are shifting in their seats.
- i) What would be the likely cause of such behaviour? (3mks)
- ii) What would you do to ensure you continue listening effectively? (3mks)
- d) Consider the following conversation between a seller and a buyer of chickens and then answer the questions that follow.
- BUYER: How are you this morning?
- SELLER: I'm okay
- BUYER: I'm looking for good chickens, but yours don't look too good.
I'm going to have visitors, and this being the Christmas season, I really must give them a feast.
- SELLER: These are the right kind of chickens for your visitors. They're healthy and well fed.
- BUYER: On the contrary, they look underfed. Anyway, what is your price?
- SELLER: It depends I charge more for cocks; they have more meat, you know (pointing at a red cock).
This one, for instance, goes for sh 400.00. as for the hens, I charge sh. 250.00
- BUYER: You're not serious! Much of the weight is a bundle of bones. I'm giving you sh. 150. 00 for each hen and sh. 300.00 for each cock. I'm buying three of each-three hens for Sh. 450.00 and three cocks for sh. 900.00. this will give us a total of sh. 1,350.00.
- SELLER: You know, I buy and sell. I don't get them from my shamba.
Your figure doesn't give me any profit at all.
- BUYER: But you also know money is hard to come by, and especially during this Christmas season. Give me a reasonable price, unless you prefer I go to another seller.
- SELLER: Let me make it Sh. 225.00 for a hen and sh. 375.00 for a cock
- BUYER: It looks like you're not interested in selling your chickens
- SELLER: No, I'm. why would I be here? My children's fees come from this business.
- BUYER: Okay, take sh. 175.00 for each hen and sh. 325.00 for each cock
- SELLER: No, there would be no profit for me. You can do better than that You can surely promote my small business. Give me Sh. 350.00 per cock and sh. 225.00 per hen. This would be sh. 675.00 for the three hens and sh. 1,050.00 for the cocks.

BUYER: (During his mental arithmetic) That's a total of sh. 1,725.00. Okay, at least I'll be able to feed my visitors. (Handing over the money) Here you are.

SELLER: Thank you. (As the seller ties them together) You're good customer. Please come again. My name is Musimbi.

BUYER: And I'm Karani, See you then.

SELLER: See you.

- i) What is the purpose of the greetings in this situation? (1mks)
- ii) Identify and explain the negotiation skills of the buyer. (3mks)

(20 marks)

2. Read the passage below and fill in each blank space with an appropriate word. (10 marks)

I met Frank as soon as he was 1 from the hospital. He felt 2 to be alive. His seat-belt had kept him from going 3 the windscreen, and he had only a 4 cheek and some double-vision to indicate he 5 had a nearly fatal crash. In the weeks that followed, 6, I began to notice strange after effects. Frank forgot to return phone calls. One afternoon, while writing out payroll cheques for his staff, he repeatedly asked me the date. I watched as his pen froze over the yellow cheque-book. He would 7 flip the pages to check the spelling of a colleague's name. At the piano, he played the same note over and over again, seemingly 8 to proceed to the next. It 9 be months before any of us were willing to accept the painful 10 that his music career was over.

3. (a) Read the poem below and then answer the questions that follow.

When, in disgrace with Fortune and men's eyes, I all alone bewep my outcast state, And trouble deaf heaven with my bootless cries, And look upon myself and curse my fate,

Wishing me like to one more rich in hope, Featured like him, like him with friends possessed, Desiring this man's art and that man's scope, With what I most enjoy contented least, Yet in these thoughts myself almost despising; Haply I think on thee, and then my state, (Like to the lark at the break of day arising) From sullen earth sings hymns at heaven's gate,
 For thy sweet love remembered such wealth brings That then I scorn to change my state with

 OWING: You see. You are rude and unrefined.
 JUMA: And you. of course, have such fine manners!

Whats wrong with what I said?

OWING: A document or mere legislation cannot transform a society.
It's the people who must change their thinking and demonstrate a willingness to make things better.

JUMA: But the new law provides guidelines that will put us on the right path. It's like a compass. If we follow it, we won't get distracted...

OWING: You have made your point.

JUMA: I give up. Every word you say confirms that I shouldn't be talking to you.

The Cowtail Swish

Once upon a time, there lived a much loved village chief. He loved hunting and would share the meat with the entire village. One day, he went hunting as usual but didn't return. His people became very worried. They searched and searched for him. As they searched, they kept singing his favourite song, hoping that he'd sing back in response. The song echoed throughout the forest: Mother nature, mother nature You have enough for all Mother nature, may my arrow find much meat Meat to feed all my people

After a long fruitless search, the chief was presumed dead. Shortly afterwards, his wife gave birth to their seventh son. With his first breath, he asked, "What happened to my father?"

"Have you ever seen anything like this?" the villagers whispered among themselves in amazement.

"Never, ever!" was the soft reply all round. Immediately, the newborn's question prompted his six older brothers to embark on another search for their father. It was with sadness that they discovered that he'd been swallowed by a python. Luckily, each of them was endowed with special talents and powers which they combined to restore their father's life. The whole village danced and danced, the joyful pata pata of their feet resounding throughout the village.

Now, a big, big problem arose; who among the sons would become heir one day and receive the Cowtail swish which was the symbol of authority? Each of the six sons claimed that it was his magical powers that had brought their father back from the land of the spirits. Each claim sounded as valid and as potent as the next. In confusion, the villagers scratched their heads like chickens scratching the ground.

"Well, our land has many rivers, each with its source. Likewise, the search that eventually led to the restoration of my life had a source," the chief said in a tone of finality. All the eyes of the villagers turned on the infant son. They remembered the proverb that says: a man is only truly dead when he is not remembered.

- (i) Illustrate any four features that show that this is an oral narrative. (4 marks)
 - (ii) Which gesture would you use while saying the words: "With "the entire village" in the first paragraph? (1 mark)

3. (a) Study the passage below, which is about negotiation and conflict resolution, and then answer the questions that follow.

One evening Linda was walking down a desolate, dangerous block lined with abandoned, boarded-up buildings when suddenly out of nowhere, she was surrounded by three boys about fourteen years old. One pulled out a knife with a four inch blade as they pressed around her.

“Give me your purse! Now!” the boy with the knife hissed.

Though frightened, Linda had the presence of mind to take some deep breaths and reply coolly, “I’m feeling a little uncomfortable. You know, guys, you’re a little on my space. I’m wondering if you could step back a little.”

Linda studied the pavement – and, to her amazement, she saw them take a few steps back. “Thank you,” she said. Then she continued, “Now I want to hear what you said to me, but to tell you the truth, I’m a little nervous about that knife. I’m wondering if you could put it away.”

After what seemed an eternity of silence and uncertainty, the knife went back into a pocket.

Quietly reaching into her purse, Linda took out a 1,000/= shilling note, caught the eye of the one with the knife, and asked, “who should I give it to?”

“Me,” he said.

Glancing at the other two, she asked if they agreed. One of the two nodded.

“Great.” She said, handing the leader the 1,000/= shilling note. “Now here is what is going to happen. I’m going to stay right here while you walk away.”

With puzzled looks on their faces, the boys started to walk away, glancing over their shoulders at Linda – and then they broke into a run. They were running from her.

Geniuses of countless nations
Have told their love for generations
Till all their memorable phrases
Are common as goldenrod or daisies.
Their girls have glimmered like the moon,
Or shimmered like the moon,
Stood like lily, fled like fawn,
Now the sunset, now the dawn,
Here the princess in the tower
There the forbidden flower.
Darling, when I look at you
Every aged phrase is new
And there are moments when it seems
I've married one of the Shakespeare's dreams.

Giraffes

Beyond the brassy sun-stare where each shade
Crouches beneath its substance at mid-noon,
The tall giraffes are gathered in a glade
Grazing the green fruit of the midday moon.
Patched with sienna shadows of the jungle,
In pencil-slender attitudes they stand;
Grotesque in camouflage, each curve and angle
Is merged into the backcloth of the land.
These circus creatures of a poet's dreaming
Whose destiny on silent strings is spun,
Are patterned in designs of nature's scheming
To move through dappled woods and dun.
Strange genesis in which the substance seeming

The shadow, is the street of the sun!
