Read the passage below carefully and answer question that follows

Long ago in a great colony, there lived a very lazy man. He never did any work. He loved food, sleep and walking around the village. One morning, he woke up very early than usual. He was so hungry as he had nothing to cook and no one was willing to give him food. He knew if he would not get food, he would grow weak and die in a few days. He longed to be in jail as in jail there was free food and rest. He took three stones and went to the kings palace.

He threw a stone and hit the kings gate but the guards left him alone. They thought he was a king's mad man. He threw another stone and hit the king's house and the king ordered him arrested. He knew his plan had worked out well.

When taken in front of the king, he said that he wanted to wake up the king so that he can order his servants to give food as he was very hungry.

They ordered him to be given food and taken in the kings farm and work there for one year under strict supervision. The guards always gave him food but there was no resting for one year. He regretted but he became a very hardworking man there after.

Read the passage below and then answer questions 39-50

Tourists are very good because they help our government make money when they pay taxes. If the tourist is not a Kenyan we call him or her a foreigner. A foreigner is a person from another country.

When they visit our country, they bring money from their country to pay for the services in the hotels, airports and transport. Foreign tourists pay a lot of money to our government just to see our beautiful land, animals and culture.

It would be better if we travel all over our country to learn more about our different regions and culture. This will help us appreciate one another and culture. This will help us appreciate one another and live in harmony. We will understand our culture more and accept each other as Kenyans.

We should be able to eat other community's food without any problem. In our lifetime, we should try to be domestic tourists and pay little taxes to our government as we travel around our country. This can be possible if as a family we save some money for it. You should desire that before you grew very old to have travelled across Kenya. Visit western, central, Nairobi, Rift Valley, North Eastern, Coastal and Eastern Regions.

In these regions, there are thrilling facts about our culture and lifestyle we all should know. Local tourism is very good for a country like Kenya that has over forty languages and lifestyles. When we meet one another and see how they live, what they eat and the unity in their region that is the time we will all love our country more. It will help us unite as one nation. This will prove the words in our great anthem of a possible united Kenya.
